2010 “Swing into Spring” Senior Expo Adds New Exhibitors and Entertainment

Maine Township’s fourth annual Senior Expo, “Swing into Spring,” set for Friday, Apr. 23, 2010 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., is fast approaching. As always, there will be something for everyone at the Expo. New exhibitors, entertainment and presentations for this year promise to help make the show a continued success.

New for this year, the Glenview Square Dancers will take the stage and perform, a Chair Yoga demonstration will also be given, and attendees will be treated to the pageantry and sweet sounds of The Legacy Girls. Also, almost 10 of this year’s exhibitors are participating for the first time.

“This is sure to be another successful event,” says Carol A. Teschky, Supervisor of Maine Township. We are always excited to include new aspects to our MaineStreamers’ senior expo and we value the cooperation with the fine folks at Golf Mill.”

The Expo promises to be a fun and beneficial event for all who attend. 2009’s event was a huge success, with approximately 1000 seniors attending to take advantage of health screenings, raffles, entertainment, exhibits and informative presentations. The proven partnership between the MaineStreamers and Golf Mill promises to make the 2010 event the best yet.

The Expo sales team expects more than 50 exhibitors, featuring displays from senior housing, health, financial, and other providers of products and services that benefit older Americans. For further information, please call 847-297-2510 or visit the Maine Township website at www.maintownship.com. Potential exhibitors are encouraged to contact the Expo Office at 847-698-5069.
